

Brighton Day Trip

Date: Saturday 9th August 2014

First pick up starts at 8.00am, Departing approx 5pm

Once the heart of the old fishing town, Brighton's historic quarter is an intricate maze of twisting alleyways with an extraordinary mix of antiques, jewellery, interior design and famous labels. In the hidden squares, elegant arcades and winding passages, you can find bespoke perfumes and fragrant herbs mixing with freshly roasted coffee and the aroma of Italian cooking.

A pebble's throw from the beach and the Royal Pavilion, you can soak up Brighton's history in the graceful Regency architecture, 400 year old fishermen's cottages, quaint old pubs, brick-paved streets and flint stone walls. Coffee (and tea) culture has hit The Lanes in the chic new cafés and there are plenty of eating places from seafood specialities to gourmet vegetarian. Whether it's serious shopping you're after or a relaxed al fresco lunch, The Lanes has a distinct and very cosmopolitan appeal.

EUROPEAN BEACH TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIPS 2014 - Great Britain is again hosting the 2014 Championships in Brighton. The event will take place between 8th – 10th August and is one of the top Beach Tennis events on the ITF calendar. The event will take place at Yellowwave and entry is free to spectators. Why not pop along to take a peek.
