

Fourth annual NWEMF viol weekend

1–3 March 2013

The Viol Music of Germany

☞ The Composers ☞

We shall be looking at music by composers such as Schein, Scheidt, Isaac. A more specific planned repertoire will be issued nearer the time; participants may also bring their own music to add to the repertoire.

☞ Who is the weekend for? ☞

We welcome all intermediate to advanced viol players, capable of holding a part; accompanying spouses/friends are also welcome. We shall select some of the easier pieces for less advanced players. The course is planned as a residential event, but players may join us just for one day. On the Saturday, we aim to provide sessions for renaissance viols, if sufficient numbers of players apply. We would also welcome continuo and lute players. Please note that pitch will be A = 415 (but A = 440 for renaissance viols, subject to confirmation).

☞ The Tutors ☞

Our tutors are Ibi Aziz and, if numbers of bookings permit, Hugh Cherry. Ibi Aziz is a well-regarded and highly talented young viol player, whose tutorial expertise will already be familiar to many. Hugh Cherry was a founding member of the Rose Consort of Viols, and is an experienced tutor in viol and lute.

☞ The Venue ☞

The West Arms, an inn founded in 1670, is set in the beautiful Ceiriog Valley, 10–12 miles from Llangollen, Chirk and Oswestry. With its period charm, it is an excellent setting for playing early music. The area offers opportunities for walking or exploring in the Welsh mountains, and is within easy reach of attractions such as Llangollen and Chirk Castle. For more on the Ceiriog Valley, see <http://www.chirkandtheceiriogvalley.co.uk>

West Arms has a Michelin Guide-recommended restaurant (with 2 AA rosettes), and will provide full board.

☞ Bookings ☞

West Arms has 16 rooms. In order to secure the rooms in the inn, we need to book as soon as possible, and participants are urged to send deposits accordingly. The basic price for the weekend, with full board and lodging, is £299 (subject to confirmation with the venue by October); there is a small reduction for those who have paid the course fee in full before 31 December 2012. The Saturday-only rate includes morning and afternoon coffee/tea breaks, and lunch; dinner may also be included if desired. For those wishing to attend the whole course but staying elsewhere a non-residential rate is also available.

Residential bookings must be settled in full by 1 February 2013 AT THE LATEST. Non-residential bookings to be settled by 14 February 2013.

Bookings. Sending a deposit constitutes an agreement to settle the full amount for the course according to the stipulations of the personal invoice to be sent out upon receipt of the deposit; however, the organisers reserve the right to refuse a booking (e.g. if the course is already full), in which case the deposit will not be cashed. Once a deposit is cashed, the participant is liable for full payment for the course, unless the course is cancelled by the organisers. Places at West Arms are subject to availability, but B&B accommodation may be available locally if the Inn is full.

Cancellations. Deposits are non-refundable, other than in the event of the organisers cancelling the event, or not accepting a booking. Other than in the case of the organisers cancelling the course, any refunds on course payments will be subject to filling your place.

Insurance. Individuals must make their own arrangements for insurance against personal cancellation, and for instruments.

Tutors. The organisers do not guarantee the presence of named tutors. If named tutors are unable to attend, we shall seek to find alternatives. Should no tutor prove available, the course will proceed without a tutor, and each participant who has paid the tutor fee will receive a refund of £65.

Instruments. A limited number of viols may be available for hire: contact Clive Tolley as soon as possible if you are interested.
