

Christ Michael Aton – A Voice Message to you – 14th March 2011

This is the transcription of a voice message by Christ Michael Aton through Vince at 9:30pm GMT on 13th March 2011, and transcribed by Sue.

Vince: Hello this is Vince from Erethea and I have someone here who wants to give a voice message; off you go then please.

Christ Michael: Hello my dear ones, I AM Christ Michael, also known as Michael of Nebadon or Aton. I have been working with Vince for a while now with the intention of bringing voice messages to life so that as well as reading the words, you may hear them spoken as well. This is a kind of direct voice message where I use Vince's voice-box and speak my messages through that to you. In the early stages of this it will be approximately 20-30% of the sound which will sound like me and the remaining 70-80% will sound like Vince. I have promised him that in time, as these messages are perfected, it will be 80% of me and only 20% of him in the sounds; and now I come to the message itself, which is:

Prepare yourself well my dear ones, for you are about to embark on the biggest rollercoaster ride of your lives; it will be exciting, it will be stomach churning, and every twist and turn will be very unexpected. For those of you of the light there is the opportunity to come into your own and help wherever you can, for there will be much need for our allies to help amid the times of disaster. The earthquake and tsunami in Japan is very unexpected***; and yet it is nothing by comparison of what there will be. There will be some very big surprises and your societies will begin to unravel.

Your modern communities rely very heavily on technology powered by electricity, generated by nuclear or fossil fuels and you will see quite quickly how fast these societies unravel. Many of you expect a vast array of food stuffs and other products to be available in stores, and it has enabled you to have a vast array of food stuffs for example, from all corners of the world, so it does not take much imagination to realisation that when the supply chains are cut through earthquake, volcanoes, weather disasters and all manner of natural events, there are going to be some big holes on the shelves of your supermarkets.

People have to know that their society was never meant to be a profit incentive led issue, it was meant to be spiritual. This creation of mine has been prostituted out of all recognition of what it should have been, where for many of you man's only true God is money and wealth, beyond the imagination of many of you. Tragically many people think this is normal, it is how things are supposed to be and if they have risen to the top of the pile they are doing very nice, thank you. But of course this is at everybody else's expense, so the levers and buttons of control of this wicked system are going to be taken away and it is my intention to take full control over your planet and see the rule of Divine Law applied as it should always have been, but do not worry my dear ones, for if you are of the light and you are true to the reasons why you were here, and you have not taken the money from the corrupt ones, then shall we together go forward into a much brighter future for your planet and for those dear ones who qualify to remain with it.

And so I give you my blessings and look forward to the days when every vestige of the dark ones has been removed from your environment, and then we can start constructing a civilisation based on spiritual values.

Bless you all my dear ones until I speak to you again.

Christ Michael

*** What Christ Michael meant here is that the earthquake and tsunami were very unexpected by the Japanese themselves and the global population, and not by Himself. I thought this needed clarification. Vince.
