

Mary Magdalena – The Tip of the Iceberg - 12th March 2011

This is the transcript of a Voice Message by Mary Magdalena through Diana, and transcribed by Sue.

Mary Magdalena: My beloved children, it was with sympathy, sorrow, compassion and admiration that I come to you tonight, for your world is in turmoil. The devastation of the large country, Japan; the heartbreak, the sheer fear and utter devastation that you see unfurling before your eyes; the poor souls that are enduring this, it is heartbreaking. Although even in times of such utter transformation you see a miracle; a child plucked from the debris, an older person rescued, someone walk unscathed from a demolished building and it is these miracles you must hold on to that they may give you courage, fortitude and determination to continue. Even on the most bloody of battlefields amid all the mud and gore a tree can sprout and grow, the grass will recover; the Earth will heal and again there will be beauty.

Your kind is very resilient and you have within you all that you need to recover from such events, be it a natural disaster, a man-made one or whatever.

What is happening at the present is but the tip of the iceberg, there is much more to come. Some will be epic episodes, others will be minor; some will affect everybody, some will affect a few, but remember you are all connected to each other because you all come from the same bowl of spirit and therefore you need to look within yourselves and to send love, healing and compassion to those in need at this time. Spare a few moments and say a few prayers for; as we know, the power of thought, the power of love, is a very strong power and although many of you will not be able to physically go and help, by sending these emotions into the ether, you can do a very great amount of help for these people.

Remember not only the people that are suffering, the animals are as well, and ultimately remember the person that is suffering the most at the moment is Mother Earth or Gaia as you wish to call her, whatever, she is suffering because she is going through transformation; she is renewing, growing, expanding, changing; and she needs your love and help and to do this. It is so simple; just send her your love and your thoughts and this will help her.

Remember all beings come from spirit, all of you come from us, you are part of us, your pain, your loss, your fear, is our fear, our loss, our pain. We watch what goes on your Earth and we suffer with you. Nobody said life would be easy did they and it is not, but be assured of our love, be assured that we are watching over you, and take care my dears.

God bless you and Amen.
