A TALENTED singer from Gilmorton is hoping to reach the grand final of a search for real talent in Britain.

Jasmine Gibson (11) is a student of Future Faces Musical Theatre.

She is taking part in the Britain Does Variety contest which is seeking to find real talent in the country.

Jasmine has already successfully made her way through auditions in Kettering and will now go on to appear in a live show at Kettering's Lighthouse Theatre on Saturday, May 1.

Bradley Woodward, principal of Future Faces, said: "We are very proud of Jasmine's achievement in reaching the regional final, particularly given that she had her tonsils taken out this year.

"We hope that her hard work and dedication will see her through to the national grand final in June."

Mr Woodward added that Jasmine had a huge voice and a big personality.

Jasmine said: "I have been singing ever since I can remember and I am really excited to have made it to the regional finals.

"Although I am a little nervous, I am looking forward to singing in front of over 500 people."
