

► It's magic...back, from left, Dom Stone, Tracy Harrison, Bekki Fleming, Cheryl Evans, Jared Hunt, Jimmi Lamb and Liz Mckenzie, front, Dawn Matthew, Max Duggan and Melissa Whiffin. (Picture: Andrew Carpenter/001375-20)

Night of musical delights

A NIGHT at the musicals is being promised by members of Lutterworth Musical Theatre Company in their forthcoming production between May 3 and 7.

A 30-strong group will be performing songs and dance routines from a variety of productions including Les Miserables, Cabaret, Joseph and the Technicolour Dreamcoat, Little Shop of Horrors, War of the Worlds and a 'Lutterworth's Got Talent' medley.

Group member Dawn Pope said: "The event is called Magic of the Musicals II.

"There's a wide variety of songs and choreography from some diverse musicals in there, so there should be something on offer for everyone."

The show has been put together by director Dave Millers and musical director John Watson.

There will be three performances at the Wycliffe Rooms, in George Street, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday,

May 3, 4 and 6, all from 7.30pm.

However, on Saturday, May 7, there will be a special champagne gala performance, which includes dinner, from 8pm.

Tickets for the Saturday show are £25 while they are £10 for the other three nights.

They can be bought from Lutterworth Sound and Vision or from Chris Brady on 01455 209108.

For information, search for Lutterworth Musical Theatre on www.facebook.com.

Future Faces Students Jared Hunt Whiffin & Georina Blyth will be appearing, as well as 'old girl' Bekki Fleming and Chorum member Melissa Whiffin.