

Doggie Pubs in Cornwall

PORT GAVERNE The Port Gaverne Hotel

Quiet bay adjacent Port Isaac. Years ago busy with pilchard fishing but now tranquil cove with wonderful old pub/hotel and fine restaurant. Dogs welcome with bowl and doggie treats in front bar and rear snug. Slate floors and log fire. Excellent bar food and meals including fresh fish, crab and lobster. Beers always well kept. St Austell and Sharps. No garden but some seating at front with views seaward. Pub popular with locals holidaymakers and overseas visitors.

Port Gaverne PL29 3SQ

Telephone: 01208 880244                      01208 880244

BLACKWATER The Red Lion Inn

After enjoying a brisk coastal walk, rest your feet at this grand old coaching inn that's well worth the short detour. Dogs are welcome throughout but must be kept on a lead. The menu, served all day, is traditional but good and plentiful, reasonably priced too. Run by Jeanette and Malcolm, a friendly local couple who know all the attractions of the area. Large bar and lots of cosy corners. Large rear garden with a patio and fish pond.
