

I was recently contacted by Rebecca Reid from
The Village Cakery

Rebecca lives in The Old Fire Station on Tilt Road in Cobham where she runs her business. She kindly invited me over to meet her and find out a little bit more about her very special little cakes.

Rebecca's home is amazing and her kitchen offers the perfect setting for her talent. The cakes she makes are simply beautiful. All are individually handmade to order with great care and attention to detail and can be decorated to suit your requirements with a choice of lovely sprinkles and handmade decorations. We sat at the kitchen table and chatted over a cup of tea, and Rebecca told me how she had started her business when she lived in Wimbledon Village two years ago and how it had been a pretty amazing journey since then. She has been asked to make cakes for so many different events, weddings and corporate events, including one batch of cakes with the 2012 Olympic logo on each and some 118 118 cup cakes for the directory enquiries company! Party celebration cup cakes for all ages, from pirates to Pingu! Nothing seems to phase her. One of her popular requests is Cake Pops, which are pretty little cakes on sticks. Fantastic going home gifts for any party!

Rebecca has so many ideas and there are plenty of designs for all ages. If you are not sure exactly which design you fancy, she will be delighted to offer suggestions. I'm sure you can tell from the images here that these are no ordinary cup cakes, she is very creative indeed!

As well as making cakes, Rebecca also runs workshops and is happy to pass on some of her tips to those who wish to have a go for themselves. The classes are small and friendly and held in her lovely country kitchen (call to book).

Another great idea Rebecca offers is vintage tea parties at your own home! This is such a lovely idea, and in fact a friend of mine recently had a 'special birthday' and wanted to have afternoon tea with her girl friends. This would have been perfect for her! So brilliant for a girls' afternoon, don't you think? Rebecca comes along and sets a table in your house for afternoon tea, and she will provide as much or as little as you require, even bringing flowers and pretty crockery if you so wish. Oh yes, and the cup cakes of your choice, of course!

I have to say, I was mighty impressed! Rebecca's cakes are so pretty and really do stand out from the crowd. Thanks for the cup of tea, Rebecca, and the cakes were delicious!
